

#

PRESCOTT REGIONAL

COMMUNICATIONS CENTER

Dr. Jim DeLung

Dynamic Leadership Executive | Public Safety Innovator | Award-Winning “Edutainer”

Dr. Jim DeLung is a nationally recognized speaker, trainer, and organizational leader who brings decades of experience as both a private entrepreneur and senior public-sector executive. Known for his energetic “edutainment” style, Dr. DeLung delivers high-impact keynotes and executive training programs across the U.S. and Canada, captivating tens of thousands with his engaging approach to leadership development and organizational culture.

With a doctorate in Organizational Leadership and a passion for cultivating open, honest dialogue between leaders and their teams, Jim equips audiences with practical tools, proven strategies, and the inspiration to drive meaningful change. His sessions are built for adults of all rank, fast-paced, interactive, and deeply relevant to today’s leadership challenges.

Dr. DeLung is currently a Police Administrator for the Prescott Police Department serving as the Director of the Prescott Regional Communications Center (PRCC), a high-volume, multi-jurisdictional public safety answering point (PSAP) covering 5,000+ square miles in western Yavapai County, AZ. PRCC supports 16 partner agencies including 4 law enforcement, 11 fire departments, and a private EMS transport company.

Dr. DeLung completed his PhD in Business Administration with emphasis on Organizational Leadership in 2015 from Northcentral University in San Diego, CA. He obtained his Master of Education and Bachelor of Science degrees from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, AZ. Jim honorably retired from the Phoenix Police Department in 2014, concluding his service as the Leadership Development and Training Supervisor for the Arizona Peace Officer Standards and Training Board (AZPOST). He and his wife, Erin, reside in Prescott, Arizona, where they enjoy an active lifestyle that includes horseback riding and kayaking.

Publications

Police Personalities: Why Cops Act the Way They Do (ISBN 9781641847360)

Examination of Factors for Workplace Satisfaction of Millennial-aged Police Officers (UMI 3708832)